

FORMULA 2000

Entry-level blast systems for light industrial applications or when blasting is required on an intermittent basis.

Bearing the Guyson brand name guarantees the highest levels of efficiency, reliability and quality. Guyson success for over 68 years has been founded on quality equipment.

The Formula 2000 model comes with a model 400 foot operated blast gun as standard. Bulky or awkward-shaped parts are no problem with the spacious interior.

Parts can be loaded onto the reinforced steel floor grate by flipping up the entire top for access by forklift or hoist.
